ANSWER KEY, matching TEXT with primary source PHOTOS

(B) Reverend Fred Shuttlesworth leading marchers in prayer just before they are arrested in early April, 1963

(D) 16th Street Baptist Church was the Headquarters of the Birmingham Movement in 1963.

(F) Good Friday was on April 12, 1963. This day was marked by a parade and march in Birmingham, Alabama, that involved African American ministers and their supporters. The march was widely publicized with leaders Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and Reverend Ralph Abernathy. The men were later arrested, which led to King writing his famous "Letter from Birmingham Jail."

(G) Dorothy Bell, 19, sitting-in at a Birmingham lunch counter, April 1963. She is arrested shortly after this photo is taken.

5

(I) Thousands of men, women, boys, and girls, are arrested for violating Birmingham's segregation laws.

(J) Young nonviolent warriors on their way to jail

(K) Police dogs attack nonviolent marcher

(K) Police dogs attack nonviolent marcher

(H) On the orders of Bull Connor, high-pressure firehoses are used against young demonstrators

(H) On the orders of Bull Connor, high-pressure firehoses are used against young demonstrators

(H) On the orders of Bull Connor, high-pressure firehoses are used against young demonstrators

(E) Marchers in Harlem support Birmingham protesters and demand that Dr. King be released from jail

(C) In the Deep South, the KKK operates openly with the support of police and politicians. Parents bring their children to public Klan rallies to teach another generation the lessons of hate and bigotry.

(A) The KKK bombed the 16th Street Baptist Church.

15

(L) Four young girls were killed by the KKK at the 16th Street Baptist Church bombing in Birmingham, in September 1963

Carole Robertson (14)
Cynthia Wesley (14)
Denise McNair (11)
Addie Mae Collins (14)